Happy holidays, Terrier parents!

The Wofford community is already getting in the holiday spirit. We kicked off the celebrations last week with our annual Candlelight Carols in Leonard Auditorium, a beloved Wofford tradition that all enjoy. Winter Lighting immediately followed as students gathered for hot chocolate in the Stewart H. Johnson Greek Village.

Please make note that we will not be sending out an e-newsletter in January over Interim and will resume in February. In the meantime, I invite you to provide your feedback and fill out our Wofford parents survey.

Wishing you and your family a merry Christmas and a happy, safe holiday season!

A Survey for Wofford Parents

The Office of Parent Engagement wants your feedback! Please take a moment to fill out this brief survey for our Wofford parents. We look forward to reading your responses and learning how we can better serve you! All questions are completely optional. Find the survey here.

Leadership Wofford 2018

The Office of Diversity and Inclusion will be facilitating the annual Leadership Wofford four-week series in January. Leadership Wofford focuses on providing students with the vital skills to help them become effective leaders of their organizations and communities.

This year, the theme of Leadership Wofford is “Build” and will focus on helping students build the skills necessary to succeed as leaders on campus and in the community. The series will host several speakers from within the Wofford and Spartanburg communities. Students may apply online here.

Exam Week Study Breaks on Campus

Various offices and groups on the campus will be hosting study breaks during the week, including late-night breakfast, snack sessions and even some pet therapy. Check out all of the opportunities here.
