Wofford on Call is run by the Annual Giving Office to support the mission of Wofford College. Student callers will contact alumni, parents and friends of the college to request financial support and engage external constituents in campus life today.

Requirements
- Outgoing and enthusiastic personality with a great telephone manner
- Basic computer skills
- Self-motivated and assertive
- Previous work in phonathons or telemarketing is NOT REQUIRED, but helpful.

Responsibilities and Expectations
- Attendance at all Wofford on Call training sessions, orientation, and meetings
- Work at least 2 calling sessions each week (4 hours)
- Contact alumni, parents and friends of Wofford to acquire contributions to the college
- Build and retain a working knowledge of Wofford and its Annual Fund
- Act professionally while strengthening relationships between the college and our supporters
- Arrive on time and with a positive attitude
- Handle personal information with extreme confidentiality
- Work with other callers in a team oriented environment to achieve a common goal
- Aggressively seek to reach your nightly / semester goal
- Have a good time!

Benefits
- Competitive wages: Student callers start at $7.00 per hour and receive raises based on performance and length of employment.
- Bonus: Callers who meet their individual goals receive a $100 bonus at the end of each semester
- Incentives: Besides nightly prizes earned during motivational games, Wofford on Call often provides snacks, beverages, and end-of-semester parties
- Resume Building: Develop strong public relations, fundraising, communication, and marketing skills
- Network: Converse with alumni in various professions all across the United States. You never know who you might meet!
- Flexible Schedule: Work hours fit your academic and social life. Afternoon, night, and weekend hours available.
