Wofford College invites applications for a full-time tenure track assistant professor of finance to join its Department of Accounting, Business and Finance starting in fall 2020.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:
Faculty expectations include: (1) teach three undergraduate class sections in each of the fall and spring semesters as well as a January Interim course [3-1-3], (2) advise students, (3) pursue active scholarship and (4) serve on college and departmental committees. Wofford prides itself on providing excellence in undergraduate teaching to its students, leading them to be well prepared for meaningful lives and rewarding vocations.

To earn tenure, faculty are expected to demonstrate excellence in teaching, continued scholarly development and service to the college. Preference for appointment to this position will be provided for qualified candidates holding a Ph.D. in finance or financial economics from an AACSB accredited institution. Consideration may be given to candidates with significant industry experience and at least 18 graduate hours in finance from an AACSB accredited or equivalent globally recognized institution. A demonstrated record of superior undergraduate teaching also is strongly preferred.

For questions regarding this position, please contact the Department of Accounting, Business and Finance Chair, Dr. Philip Swicegood (swicegoodpg@wofford.edu / 864-597-4378).

QUALIFICATIONS:
Ph.D. in finance or financial economics or closely related field.

APPLICATION:
Email the following application documents: (1) letter of interest and teaching philosophy, (2) resume or curriculum vitae, (3) past teaching evaluations and (4) reference letters and/or contact information of three professional references to Dr. Philip Swicegood via AssistProfFinance@wofford.edu.

BENEFITS:
Wofford College provides a competitive benefits package including employer contribution to retirement savings, employer premium contribution to comprehensive major medical insurance and employer premium contribution to life insurance. Other benefits are available.
