WOFFORD COLLEGE

Adjunct Professor of American Politics

Wofford College invites applications for an adjunct professor of American politics in the Department of Government and International Affairs for fall 2021 to teach introduction to American politics. This is an ideal position for an ABD candidate interested in obtaining more extensive teaching experience to prepare for a career in academia, especially in a liberal arts setting.

QUALIFICATIONS:

A master's degree in political science or closely related field is required. Preference will be given to those who have experience teaching at the college level.

APPLICATION:

Application materials can be submitted electronically to Dr. Rachel Vanderhill (vanderhillrj@wofford.edu). Application materials include: (1) a letter of application that discusses the candidate's teaching philosophy and interest in teaching at a residential liberal arts college; (2) a curriculum vitae; (3) contact information for two professional references; (4) prior teaching evaluations (if available).

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

ABOUT WOFFORD COLLEGE:

Wofford College, established in 1854, is a private liberal arts residential college located a few blocks north of downtown Spartanburg, South Carolina. Wofford offers 27 major fields of study to a student body of 1,764 undergraduates and is nationally known for the strength of its academic program, outstanding faculty and study abroad participation. Wofford is home to one of the nation's 286 Phi Beta Kappa chapters. The college community supports 19 NCAA Division I athletics teams and numerous student organizations, including honor societies, professional organizations, faith-based organizations, club sports and three publications.

Wofford's priorities increasingly reflect commitments to diversity, inclusivity and coalition building. Created in the spring of 2015, the President's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee has executed the recommendations of Wofford's 2014 Strategic Vision Plan: to increase the diversity of students, faculty and staff; to support programming and policy geared toward equity; and to link its investment in diversity to sustainable partnerships with the Spartanburg community. Working alongside Wofford's Center for Community-Based Learning,
