A Note from Thom

Wofford parents,

It's an exciting time at Wofford! The college recently launched a new Wofford.edu. Click here to view the new Wofford parent page. Spring semester classes are in full swing, and Wofford's men's and women's basketball teams are showing us what it means to conquer and prevail as they prepare for the Southern Conference tournament.

It's a great time to be a Terrier, and we're glad to have the support of our Wofford parents and families. As always, please let me know if I can ever be of assistance.

2018 Parents’ Honor Roll of Giving

When a parent of a current student makes a gift to Wofford, it demonstrates an extra show of support for the Wofford experience – on the fields of play, on the stage and in the classroom. When parents of Wofford graduates support the college, we take it as a continuing vote of confidence and a signal that their graduate was well-prepared for a career or further studies.

We are grateful for financial support from Wofford families and recognize them in the 2018 Parents’ Honor Roll of Giving. Click here to learn how you can support Wofford.
