

Wofford College is committed to a safe and healthy learning, living and working environment. In keeping with this commitment, pets and other animals are prohibited from all college-owned buildings. Exceptions to this policy include:

- An animal used in the service of a person with a disability;
- An animal used for an official college research purpose;
- An animal that lives in one of three on-campus administrative personal residences;
- Common aquarium fish in tanks smaller than 10 gallons within Wofford residence halls; and
- A Boston terrier used by the college as an official mascot for a verified college event or promotion.

Members of the Wofford community and neighbors are free to walk their pets on campus as long as the pets are on a leash at all times and waste is appropriately disposed.
