

Pence giving Oct. 18 lecture

Mike Pence, 48th vice president of the United States, will give a lecture at Wofford College at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 18. It will be free and open to the public. The public can register beginning at noon on Friday, Oct. 14.

Mike Pence, the 48th vice president of the United States, will give a lecture at Wofford College at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 18, in Leonard Auditorium. The event will be free and open to the public. Registration is required.

Pence's visit is part of the college's Hipp Lecture Series on International Affairs and National Security. The public can register for the event online beginning at noon on Friday, Oct. 14. Click HERE to register. Possession of a ticket does not guarantee entry to the lecture. Doors open at 5 p.m. Seats will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Each person must have an e-ticket/QR code and valid ID to enter.

The college will livestream the event at this LINK.

"Mike Pence has served our nation with distinction as a U.S. congressman, governor and vice president of the United States, where he led America's response to the COVID-19 pandemic," says Van Hipp, founder of the college's Hipp Center for National Security and Foreign Policy. "We are honored to have him at Wofford College and thrilled for students to have the opportunity to hear from an American statesman of this stature."

READ MORE

SURF at Wofford

MauriAnna Richardson '25, a chemistry major from Columbia, South Carolina, is one of 29 Wofford College students who will present during this weekend's Southern Conference Undergraduate Research Forum (SURF), which will be held at Wofford.

Wofford College is hosting the Southern Conference Undergraduate Research Forum (SURF) this Friday and Saturday in the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts and in the Chandler Center for Environmental Studies. This year's SURF conference will be one of the largest since it was established in 2016.

The forum provides an opportunity for students attending the 10 colleges and universities competing athletically in the Southern Conference (SoCon) to share on the academic and creative arts fields. Approximately 150 students from eight of the SoCon's 10 institutions will present during the forum.

"I'm very proud of our student researchers and I'm excited for them to have a unique opportunity to share their work with a larger community of scholars," says Dr. Ramón Galiñanes Jr., Wofford's director of undergraduate research and post-graduate fellowships.

The forum will begin Friday evening with a keynote address by Dr. Anne Catllá, associate professor of mathematics and associate provost of curriculum and co-curriculum. A reception will follow. Student presentations will take place Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

READ MORE

A Day for Wofford recap

A DAY FOR WOFFORD

$688,111 TOTAL DOLLARS RAISED

1,357 TOTAL GIFTS | 1,212 TOTAL DONORS

592

ALUMNI

101

FACULTY & STAFF

446

PARENTS

52

STUDENTS

Alexander Smalls' homecoming

Trustee Craig Melvin '01, a "TODAY" show host; Wofford President Nayef Samhat; Alexander Smalls '74, a Grammy, Tony and James Beard Award winner; and Stephan Baity, director of culinary operations for Wofford's culinary partner AVI Foodsystems, participated in a cooking demonstration while celebrating Smalls' return to Wofford.

Alexander Smalls '74 was welcomed back to campus on Oct. 12. The Tony, Grammy and James Beard award winner visited with students in an environmental studies class and at the Career Center in the Mungo Exchange before participating in a cooking demonstration and an evening conversation for the public with Trustee Craig Melvin '01, a "TODAY" show co-host. Spartanburg City Council members Erica Brown '00 and Jamie Fulmer '92 presented Smalls with the key to the city before he signed copies of his cookbooks. Learn more about Smalls.

October events

Terriers will return to Wofford to celebrate Homecoming Oct. 27-29, and there are plenty of history and art exhibits to visit on campus while catching up with friends.

Get an overview of this month's events at Wofford and visit the campus calendar to find more lectures and exhibits.

Athletics updates

Smith repeats as volleyball offensive player of the week

Jackson, women's golf earn top-10 results in Edisto Island Invitational

Office of Marketing and Communications

Wofford College · 429 N. Church Street, Spartanburg, S.C. 29303-3663
864-597-4183 | woffordnews@wofford.edu | wofford.edu

Follow us @woffordcollege

