

Adjunct Lecturer

Wofford College invites applications for an adjunct lecturer in the Department of Mathematics to teach up to three sections (up to two sections of Introductory Statistics and/or two sections of Business Calculus) for fall 2022.

QUALIFICATIONS:

For appointment, 18 hours of mathematics graduate instruction from an accredited institution is required. Preference will be given to candidates with a master's degree in mathematics and higher education teaching experience or similar teaching experience.

APPLICATION:

Application materials are to be emailed to Dr. Joseph Spivey (spiveyja@wofford.edu). Application materials include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and contact information (names, emails and telephone numbers) for minimally two professional references. Qualified finalist candidates will be contacted for an interview and teaching demonstration. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

ABOUT WOFFORD COLLEGE:

Wofford College, established in 1854, is a four-year, residential liberal arts college located in Spartanburg, South Carolina. It offers 27 major fields of study to a student body of 1,775 undergraduates. Nationally known for the strength of its academic program, outstanding faculty, experiential learning opportunities and successful graduates, Wofford is recognized consistently as a "best value" and for its commitment to student success and accessibility for low- and middle-income students. The college community has 12 sororities and fraternities as well as 19 NCAA Division I athletics teams.

ABOUT SPARTANBURG:

Spartanburg County, the 5th-largest county in South Carolina, is home to nearly 328,000 people and 13 municipalities. The county is unmatched statewide in economic development for new investment and job creation. There are seven colleges or universities in Spartanburg as well as a comprehensive research and teaching hospital. The growing Spartanburg downtown area — with new shops and restaurants, public art and miles of walking and biking trails — is located a few blocks south of Wofford's campus.
