The Department of Economics at Wofford College invites applications for a one-year visiting assistant professor to start in the fall 2022. The teaching load will be three courses per semester, with three sections of introductory macroeconomics in the fall, and two courses of either intermediate macro or introductory microeconomics plus one elective in the spring. There will be no teaching responsibilities during the college’s Interim term, which runs from Jan. 8 until Feb. 2.

QUALIFICATIONS:
A Ph.D. is required for appointment as a visiting assistant professor and is preferred; however, consideration for appointment as a visiting instructor will be provided for both ABD candidates as well as candidates with a master’s degree that have 18 graduate credit hours in economics or a closely related field. Preference will be given for qualified candidates with demonstrated strong teaching experience in introductory macroeconomics and experience or a desire to teach intermediate macro or introductory microeconomics.

APPLICATIONS:
Please submit a CV, cover letter and three letters of reference through the Job Openings for Economists Network (JOE) on the American Economic Association website at https://www.aeaweb.org/joe/listing.php?JOE_ID=2022-01_111469179. In your cover letter, please clearly indicate whether you would be interested in teaching micro or macroeconomics in the spring semester and what elective course(s) you would be interested in teaching. A teaching portfolio (teaching statement, course evaluations and syllabi as applicable) is preferred but not required. Please combine all relevant teaching documents into a single file before submitting. Review of applications will begin April 11 and continue until the position is filled. Questions can be directed to bersakta@wofford.edu.

ABOUT WOFFORD COLLEGE:
Wofford College, established in 1854, is a four-year, residential liberal arts college located in Spartanburg, South Carolina. It offers 27 major fields of study to a student body of 1,775 undergraduates. Nationally known for the strength of its academic program, outstanding faculty, experiential learning opportunities and successful graduates, Wofford is recognized consistently as a “best value” and for its commitment to student success and accessibility for low- and middle-income students. The college community has 12 sororities and fraternities as well as 19 NCAA Division I athletics teams.

ABOUT SPARTANBURG:
Spartanburg County, the 5th-largest county in South Carolina, is home to nearly 328,000 people and 13 municipalities. The county is unmatched statewide in economic development for new investment and job creation. There are seven colleges or universities in Spartanburg as well as a comprehensive research and teaching hospital. The growing Spartanburg downtown area — with new shops and restaurants, public art and miles of walking and biking trails — is located a few blocks south of Wofford’s campus. To learn more about Spartanburg, visit onespartanburginc.com.

EEO STATEMENT:
Wofford College values diversity within our students, faculty and staff and strives to recruit, develop and retain the most talented people. Wofford College does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, transgender status, gender identity, age, national origin, disability, veteran status or any other legally protected status in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws. For information about Wofford’s Title IX compliance, visit wofford.edu/administration/title-ix.

It is the policy of Wofford College to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities for employment. If you require any accommodations to participate in any part of the hiring process, please contact HumanResources@Wofford.edu.