Wofford College invites applications for a visiting professor of psychology for the 2022-23 academic year (September 2022 through May 2023).

The visiting professor is expected to teach a research methods course and two additional courses each semester. Preference will be given to applicants that can teach the Sensation & Perception course, although candidates that can offer courses in other areas of specialty will also be considered. The successful candidate will be welcome, but not required, to participate fully in the department. Their courses can be arranged to be offered only Tuesdays and Thursdays depending on their needs. For more information about the Department of Psychology at Wofford College, please visit: https://www.wofford.edu/academics/majors-and-programs/psychology.

QUALIFICATIONS:
Minimum qualification is a master’s degree in psychology or closely related field. Preference will be provided for qualified candidates with higher education teaching experience.

APPLICATION:
Application materials may be placed in one PDF (or similar) file and emailed to Dr. Dave Pittman at psychologysearch@wofford.edu. Application materials include: (1) a cover letter explaining your interest for this position, and (2) a current resume or curriculum vitae. Additionally, two letters of recommendation should be solicited to be sent directly by the letter writers to psychologysearch@wofford.edu. Applications will be considered as received with a deadline of March 31, 2022.

A copy of higher education transcript(s) will be requested and a background check will be conducted for finalist candidates. Employment is contingent upon completion of a successful background check and establishment of identity and verification of employment eligibility as required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

ABOUT WOFFORD COLLEGE:
Wofford College, established in 1854, is a four-year, residential liberal arts college located in Spartanburg, South Carolina. It offers 27 major fields of study to a student body of 1,775 undergraduates. Nationally known for the strength of its academic program, outstanding faculty, experiential learning opportunities and successful graduates, Wofford is recognized consistently as a “best value” and for its commitment to student success and accessibility for low- and middle-income students. The college community has 12 sororities and fraternities as well as 19 NCAA Division I athletics teams.
ABOUT SPARTANBURG:
Spartanburg County, the 5th-largest county in South Carolina, is home to nearly 328,000 people and 13 municipalities. The county is unmatched statewide in economic development for new investment and job creation. There are seven colleges or universities in Spartanburg as well as a comprehensive research and teaching hospital. The growing Spartanburg downtown area — with new shops and restaurants, public art and miles of walking and biking trails — is located a few blocks south of Wofford’s campus. To learn more about Spartanburg, visit onespartanburginc.com.

EEO STATEMENT:
Wofford College values diversity within our students, faculty and staff and strives to recruit, develop and retain the most talented people. Wofford College does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, transgender status, gender identity, age, national origin, disability, veteran status or any other legally protected status in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws. For information about Wofford’s Title IX compliance, visit wofford.edu/administration/title-ix.

It is the policy of Wofford College to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities for employment. If you require any accommodations to participate in any part of the hiring process, please contact HumanResources@Wofford.edu.